

Discussion Of Chrysler Wage Scales Begun

Auto Workers Unions Reject General Motors Corp. Wage Offer

DETROIT, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Open industrial warfare between the world's largest union and the automotive industry threatened to flare today as the United Automobile Workers, CIO and the Chrysler Corp. began discussing a wage increase.

As the UAW-CIO and Chrysler officials began discussions, Norman Matthews, union Chrysler director, charged that the firm had "chosen to continue a policy of fostering industrial civil war."

Matthews accused John W. Seelye, Chrysler economist, of advocating in a speech that "we should look ahead to the time when all federal labor laws will be repealed." Matthews attacked the company's demand for authority to fire employees engaged in unauthorized work, stoppages as "ridiculous," asserting the firm had already exercised this right.

Reject Offer

The union rejected a General Motors Corp. offer of a 10 per cent raise to hourly-rate employees and the Ford Motor Co. flatly turned down the union demand for a 30 per cent wage increase.

The union announced that it would approach General Motors "sometime next week" about resuming negotiations, after rejecting the third GM wage offer. Walter P. Reuther, UAW vice president in charge of GM relations, said the 10 per cent raise offer was turned down "because it is tied up to price increases and the union won't participate in a price inflation."

Reuther declared the union would seek an injunction if the OPA raised price ceilings on new automobiles. Harry W. Anderson, GM vice president in charge of labor relations, replied that "General Motors will go to court to fight any such action," while admitting that ceilings "were a sole function of the OPA."

CHILD SHOT TO DEATH

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 12.—(INS)—Dolores Harman, eight, was accidentally shot to death by her brother, Gary, seven, in Pittsburgh. The boy was playing with a gun brought home by his father-father on his last furlough, police today reported.

Vote In State 50 Per Cent

Such Is Indication By Incomplete Report Of Recent Election

OTHER NEWS OF STATE EVENTS

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Incomplete returns from the general election have indicated that the final tally would not embrace more than 50 per cent of the approximate 4,400,000 voters who were eligible to go to the polls. The turnout was sufficient to assure adoption of amendment to state's constitution prohibiting raids on the motor license fund by the general assembly.

The legislature now is prohibited from "borrowing" motor revenues except for highway or air navigation purposes providing the loan is repaid within the next fiscal year.

The adoption of the resolution by the electorate climaxed a fight of more than 10 years spearheaded by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation. In past years, the assembly usually looked to the motor license revenues when special funds were needed for various projects including relief.

An indication of the speed with which rumors travel Capitol Hill was apparent in the report that Sen. Charles H. Eddy (R) Somerset, "had died," when the report reached the Capitol News room, reporters immediately contacted their offices in an attempt to verify the source of the report. It was found that a Capitol policeman had told a state policeman who in turn passed the word on to an employee in the governor's office. It developed that Eddy had been seen by the Capitol policeman leave the State House by automobile to attend the funeral of the late Sen. Franklin Spencer Edwards (R) Montgomery. The Capitol policeman had been confused by the similarity of the names.

Nelson E. Shlaybaugh, chief of the Division of Accounting and Budget, has reported that during the fiscal year ended May 31 the income from all sources credited to the State Game fund totaled $1,559,007.94.

Writing in the "Pennsylvania Game News," organ of the Game commission, Shlaybaugh said that the income was $55,687.09 more than that of the 1944 fiscal year. The bulk of the 1945 revenue, $1,248,000.67, was derived from the sales of hunting licenses, he added.

Chicken On Sunday? Sure, It's Good For Nerves Says Expert

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 16.—Do you have nervous jitter? Paul H. Morrell, Pennsylvania State College poultry expert, advises reaching for a leg of chicken or a turkey wing.

He says eating either is good for the nerves.

"Poultry," he explains, "is easier to digest and richer nutritionally than most other foods. Turkey and chicken have both proved useful in restoring good health to battle-weary veterans."

Traditionally a holiday food, poultry is finally coming into its own as a standard part of the everyday American diet, according to the Penn State specialist.

Meat rationing, plus heavy consumption of poultry by members of the armed services, has cultivated the habit on a large scale, and Morrell thinks the public will go right on eating poultry.

This year's poultry crop, he says, will easily meet consumer demands. Roasting chickens may be a little short, he adds, but there'll be plenty of broilers and fryers.

French Homeless To Use Air Raid Shelters In Winter

PARIS.—France's bombed-out will live in air raid shelters this winter. Jean Kerisel, planning director of the reconstruction ministry, said the 450,000 cubic meters of air raid shelter material will come from England, Switzerland and Germany for housing purposes.

"We asked the United States for another 10,000,000 cubic feet," he said, "but owing to the demands of the Pacific war we were only able to get 2,000,000 so far."

Altogether 1,500,000 French homes were destroyed during the war and rebuilding is hampered by coal and material shortages.

year. Simultaneously operating expenses rose from $211,185 during the 1944 period to $300,775 through September of this year.

Administrative and general costs were $3808 greater than for the same time last year, it was reported.

Samuel Friedman, president, explained that his salary had been boosted from $6000 to $7500.

To Secure New Buses

The company had purchased six used buses at a total cost of $10,000 and expected to obtain three new ones costing $9,991 apiece while the maintenance force was increased sharply after V-J day, he added.

Friedman pointed out that labor costs had increased with the starting of an 11 cents an hour wage increase plus time and a half pay for overtime work during the past two years. Additional expense had incurred through company payment of premiums on accident and hospitalization policies for all employees, he said.

Harry H. Frank of Harrisburg, the firm's counsel, argued that additional wage and hour demands contemplated by Shengene's employees may require increased expenditures.

They were reportedly considering demands for a 10 per cent an hour wage boost and a 40-hour week with a 40-hour pay exemption plus time and a half pay for overtime. The current maximum work week is 34 hours, according to Friedman.

Shengene operates in New Castle, Sharon, Pottsville, Harrisburg and Wheatland.

RAISE QUESTION OF CONVOYING PRIOR TO WAR

questioned yesterday and immediately became the subject of cross-examination by Sen. Ferguson (R-M.D.) who told reporters he regarded it as "most significant."

Order Produced

Ferguson's entire trial transcript was produced by chief counsel William D. Mitchell who read it as follows:

"Route all trans-Pacific shipping through Porto straits. Commander-in-chief Pacific fleet and commander-in-chief Asiatic fleet will provide necessary escort."

Under questioning by Ferguson, Admiral T. B. Inglis, present chief of naval intelligence, admitted that he had seen the order for the first time this morning about 3:30 o'clock.

His information concerning it given yesterday in his narrative account of the attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941, was obtained, he said, from a "brief prepared by my research staff."

A representative of the judge advocate general's office, later on, times and "on one or two occasions" a member of the congressional committee's legal staff went over the "script" with him, Inglis testified.

"Did they (the committee staff) see this exhibit before this morning?" Ferguson asked Inglis.

"No, sir," Inglis replied. "It was not asked for."

The second day's hearing opened at 10:05 a. m. EST with chief counsel Mitchell advising the committee that to avoid "confusion" it would be necessary in the future to have any requested documents furnished through the Army-Navy liaison especially set up for that purpose.

Rev. Fr. Nader conducted the funeral service at the grave in St. Mary's cemetery.

GEN. EISENHOWER URGES ARMY AND NAVY MERGER

Pearl Harbor, would appear before the senate committee tomorrow to rebut the general's testimony.

Eisenhower recalled that there was an "unhappy" commandant but rather "a good" commandant at the time of Pearl Harbor. He observed that unified command was brought into being "during actual operations when lives were at stake."

"I am convinced," he testified, "that unless we have unity of direction in Washington through the years of peace that we should, we may enter another emergency in a time to come as we did at Pearl Harbor. It is in time of peace that we should most preserve a balanced, adequate measure of our land, sea and air power, and we see the power we have so dearly bought."

Reasons For Merger

He summarized his reasons for desiring the merger in the following line points:

1. It is essential in order that there may be a well-balanced military program which means for us the maximum protection for ourselves and our allies.

2. It is not feasible to arrive at the size or composition of each arm without simultaneously considering the others.

3. The national security is safeguarded only if the security establishment is balanced, trained and administered under single direction—by a single department.

4. The era of atomic weapons, pilotless missiles makes unity of concept, indoctrination and training more necessary than ever.

5. The pooling of talent in the field of scientific research and development is an absolute necessity.

6. There is the absolute need for economy in administration if we are to be able to afford an adequate security establishment.

7. It is the duty of the military establishment to provide the maximum protection for ourselves and our allies.

8. One of the most important and least understood factors in the matter of perfected teamwork is the fact that it does not come from the mere obvious reasons of combined tactical training and doctrine.

9. Finally, there is no such thing as a separate land sea or air war, therefore we must now recognize the fact by establishing a single department of the armed forces.

The grant of the land of what is now Pennsylvania was made in settlement of a debt of 16 pounds which King Charles II and the government of Great Britain owed Admiral Penn.

AWAIT REACTION OF SOVIET RUSSIA ON BOMB DECISION

President Truman today before departing with Premier Mackenzie King for a brief visit to Canada prior to Attlee's return to London.

Attlee spent an hour Thursday afternoon conferring with the president and Secretary of State James F. Byrnes. The confab followed a 10-minute joint news conference in which the three leaders made public the result of their discussions.

The subject of these latter deliberations was not made public by the White House.

The meeting raised the question, however, of whether Attlee had entered into conversation with the president on other pressing problems.

Concern Huge Loan

These subjects concern the contemplated huge American loan to Britain, the Palestine question, immigration in the Netherlands, East India, the internal control situation within occupied Germany, possible rearmament of the council of ministers conference in London, Russia's demand for a United Nations conference on the Pacific, and the American position on the Canadian proposal for a commission under the United Nations.

STEPHENSON CIRCLE DINNER AT CHURCH

Members of the Stephenson circle, garbed as Puritan ladies, met for a Thanksgiving tureen dinner in the First Methodist church dining room at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

Mrs. John Black's group, Mrs. C. L. Casselman, Mrs. Charles Layton, Mrs. J. W. Anderson and Mrs. E. B. Bartlett, was in charge.

Costumed in a beautiful Chinese robe, Mrs. H. C. Harper reviewed the study book, "China of Today."

Program feature was a Thanksgiving skit, "Over the River and Through the Woods," presented by Mrs. Delance Cole, Mrs. W. L. Bell, Mrs. Phoebe Patton, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. M. R. Hornung and Mrs. W. H. Shipley. Group games and contests followed.

Devotionals on the Thanksgiving theme were led by Mrs. W. L. Bell. Members answered roll call by telling "By whom and when I first was asked to join the Stephenson circle." Mrs. Delance Cole presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Robert L. Meermans.

Notes on the fifth annual held meeting of the W. S. C. S. held in Mahoningtown October 12 were reported by Mrs. Bessie Pitzer and Mrs. Cole.

Miss Betty Jane Purdy of Connelville, recently discharged from service with the army nurse corps, was a guest.

Next meeting will be December 12 at the home of Mrs. Jesse N. Kerr, East Lincoln avenue.

Son Born

Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Welker of 219 East street, Oxford, Calif., residents of Shenley avenue, this city, announce the birth of a son in St. John's hospital, Oxford, on November 8.

SURPRISE SHOWER FOR BRIDE ELECT

Mrs. William Barnes of the Hillman apartments entertained members of St. Mary's Alumnae group at a surprise shower for Miss Constance Flavin, Thanksgiving bride-elect, on Thursday evening.

Cards were a pastime and later the guest of honor was presented with an array of lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Miss Flavin will be married on Thanksgiving Day to James D. Dixon of Philadelphia, at an open church ceremony at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's church.

Among the pre-nuptial events given for her was a recent weekend house party in Warren, O., at the home of Mrs. William Rupert.

Best man.

MISSION GROUP YEARLY ELECTION

Mrs. Roy Houk of the Pulaski road was hostess Thursday evening to the Friendship Missionary circle of the People's Mission. The following officers were elected at this time: president, Mrs. Sadie Parker; vice president, Mrs. Erma Overy; secretary, Mrs. Herman Byler; treasurer, Mrs. Roy Houk; reporter, Mrs. John A. Cameron, and pianist, Mrs. Charles Caldwell.

Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Erma Overy. Mrs. Edward Truman, who was the main speaker of the evening, gave an informative talk upon the subject, "The Word of God."

A tasty lunch was served later by Mrs. Houk and the co-hostesses, Mrs. Charles Stoner and Mrs. Sadie Parker.

Mrs. Charles Stoner of Croton avenue will entertain at a yuletide party and Christmas exchange December 13.

KATHERINE MAGNO WEDS W. J. MILLER

Miss Katherine Magno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Magno of Forrest street, and Willard J. Miller, son of Mrs. Mary Miller of Uniontown, Pa., were united in marriage Thursday morning at nine o'clock in St. Vitus church.

Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita officiated at the ceremony, using the double ring service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a white duchess satin gown, princess style, with sheer yoke of marquisette with bead trim, and was made with satin train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught in a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid.

Miss Margaret Magno as her sister's maid of honor wore a heavenly blue satin gown with matching accessories, and she carried red roses.

Bridesmaids, Teresa Vascetti, niece of the bride, and Jean Miller, sister of the bridegroom, wore pink gowns, patterned at the maid of honor's, and they carried pink roses.

S. K. 2-c Dan Cooper served as best man.

A wedding breakfast was served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vascetti, Winslow avenue, with Mrs. E. L. Cooper and Mrs. Dan Cooper joining at the table. A wedding dinner followed in a local dining hall. From three to seven p. m. a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller departed on a wedding trip, and for traveling she wore a green ensemble with black accessories and orchid corsage. On their return they will reside at 99 East Berkley street, Uniontown, Pa.

Mr. Miller is employed at Sears Roebuck company, Uniontown, and Mrs. Miller was formerly with the Shengango Pottery company here.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Mary Miller, Jean Miller and Rick Richardson, Uniontown; Mrs. E. L. Cooper, Youngstown; Mrs. Anthony Vascetti, Sharon; and Dan Cooper, S. K. 2-c, of Mechanicsburg, Pa.

Happy Group Club

Mrs. Alex Canfora of Winslow avenue, received the Happy Group club, Thursday evening in her home.

Tables of 500 were in play, high score prizes going to Mrs. Joseph Leta and Mrs. John Donelli.

The club taken was captured by Mrs. Arnold Julian.

Special guests were Mr. Joseph Leta, Mrs. John Donelli, Mrs. S. L. LaSola and Mrs. Nick Alcorn. At a later hour the ladies served a tasty lunch, aided by her daughter, Mary.

On November 29 Mrs. Joseph Bonadoni, Northview avenue, will entertain the club.

W. C. Club

W. C. club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lang, Highland avenue extension, on Wednesday evening when two tables of 500 were in play.

High score winners were Mrs. Elmer Blaser and Mrs. Joseph Flynn. Mrs. Clyde Shepherd and Mrs. Charles Clark assisted the hostess in serving a lunch.

Plans were made for a Christmas party on December 19.

Next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Joseph Flynn, Homestead street.

A. R. C. Class

Members of the A. R. C. class of the Wesley Methodist church, West Washington street, met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Agnes Schell, Court street, for their regular meeting.

Devotionals were led by Mrs. George Edwards.

The next meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party, when gifts will be exchanged, time and place to be announced later.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edrye Cox.

Son Is Born

A son, James Alfred, was born to Sgt. and Mrs. Glenn J. Taylor, Armistice Day, in Chickasha, Okla., where Sgt. Taylor is stationed in the army. Sgt. Taylor is on leave of absence from the speech department at Westminster college. His wife, formerly Wilhelmina Lohmeyer, was physical education instructor of women students at Westminster until her marriage.

JEWISH COUNCIL DANCE WEDNESDAY

Rapidly progressing are the plans for the Victory dance, scheduled on Wednesday evening, November 21, by the New Castle Section of National Council of Jewish Women, in the coral room of The Castleton.

Dancing in the spacious ballroom will start at 9:30 o'clock and continue until late in the evening. A popular local orchestra has been engaged for the evening to provide the pleasing dance melodies.

The dance is informal, and is being held in conjunction with the annual fund raising project for the section.

Mrs. Dan Fisher is chairman of the event, and is making all necessary arrangements to make this occasion one of the most successful held. The vice-chairman is Mrs. Samuel Schwartz.

Her committee includes: Mrs. Sam Ackerman, Mrs. Ben Kay, Mrs. Pierson Caplan, Mrs. Abe Levine, Mrs. Peter Cohen, Mrs. Percy Alper, Mrs. Meyer Rosenberg, Mrs. Ben Finkel and Mrs. William Cosel. Mrs. Pierson Caplan is in charge of publicity.

ST. PAUL' GROUP THANK OFFERING

Women's Missionary society members of St. Paul's Lutheran church gathered Thursday evening in the church for their annual thank offering service. Associates of the missionary societies of St. John's and Bethany Lutheran churches were guests.

Mrs. O. J. Warnick, who presented the program, gave the scriptures reading. Hymns were sung by the choir, accompanied by Miss Ruth Weir. A missionary playlet, in which Mrs. J. Kotchick, Mrs. Robert Martikala, Mrs. Lillian Appel, Mrs. Sara Niekum, Miss Clara Schuller, Mrs. Katherine Blodner, Mrs. Tillie Lewis and Mrs. Dorothy Roth took part, was a feature. Miss Anna Dietrich, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Brown, offered the solo. Thanks.

Mrs. Marie Woodruff, who has been a missionary in China for 42 years, told of her work in that field. She was expatriated during the war but plans to resume her work there soon.

Tea was served in the social room of the church with Mrs. A. C. Deterle, Mrs. J. Morgan, Miss Bertha Young and Miss Lillian Hartman serving as hostesses.

EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY MARKED

Words came to Mrs. Amy Cooper of East Washington street from her sister, Mrs. Charles A. Henry, of Los Angeles, Calif., formerly of this city, that a group of friends and relatives gathered at her home recently in honor of the eightieth birthday anniversary of their mother, Mrs. R. J. Richards of Los Angeles, a former resident of this city.

The hostess served a delicious lunch, assisted by her daughter, Barbara, and Mrs. Gertrude Jones, formerly of this city. A lovely birthday cake graced the table.

Special guests were Edward Smith and James C. Shum of this city, recently honorably discharged from naval service. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Eschke of Youngstown, Ohio.

The honored guest was the recipient of a number of nice gifts.

CHURCH CHOIR PLANS CHRISTMAS PARTY

At the Central Christian church, members of the choir had their regular meeting Thursday evening in the social room. Host and hostess were Dave Lewis, chorister, and Mrs. Amy Cooper, president.

Mrs. Cooper led the devotional period.

A splendid lunch was served by host and hostess, assisted by Mrs. Nellie Cronie. Rehearsal followed the business session.

The next social gathering will be at the church Thursday evening, Dec. 20. This will be a Christmas party. There will be election of officers. Mrs. Margaret Davies and Rev. J. N. Ralston, the pastor, will be host and hostess.

Song Writers Produced No Great Songs During World War Two, Claim

"It seems to me," said by Musical Friend as he picked out another diminished seventh on the glockenspiel, "that the song writers of World War II laid an egg. If I am permitted a theatrical colloquialism."

Now, my M. F. is a lad who knows his cadences and contrapuntal, and is a mean fellow with a spot of grand opera. In other words he knows his music like a certain guy in Detroit knows his automobiles, and when my M. F. opens up in this vein it isn't a bad idea to settle back and take a listen to what he says. So I asked, "why?"

No lift to the songs. "There never was any lift to the World War II songs," he continued. "No emotional surge, if you get what I mean." I didn't but I let him go on, for my M. F. was off on a bit of a tirade.

"Take any of the World War II songs," he kept on. "You take them for I don't want any one song that can name me one song that was written during the war was ever that lasted longer than a New Year's resolution on the Jersey coast."

"Well," suggested I in a meek, small voice, "there was 'Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition.'"

"I'm glad you brought that up," said he. "Now there was a song that seemed to have a bit of something. The juke boxes ran it for weeks, and then the public dropped it like a motion picture magazine dropping a motion picture option."

Or the Others. "Or take any of the others which sounded good for a few minutes. 'Come In On A Wing and a Prayer,' 'There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere,' 'There'll Be a Hot Time in the Town of Berlin,' 'Remember Pearl Harbor,' 'This Is Worth Fighting For,' which by the way did deserve a better fate."

"Or take 'Johnny Doughboy Found a Rose in Ireland.' Even Irvin Berlin, the old master, didn't do better than scratch a single with 'This Is the Army, Mister Jones' and the other melodies of 'This Is the Army.'"

"Don't get me wrong," continued the M. F., "a lot of those war bangers did a whole lot of box office business. That doesn't prove a thing. The public wanted something new and they went for them for a while, something like mah jong and miniature golf."

"It's the staying qualities I'm talking about. Songs that are whistled in barber shops and poolrooms and sung at ladies' social affairs."

What Did They Sing? "When the G. I's got together for a spot of singing, what did they sing? The modern war songs?"

No, by a country mile. They sang 'Smile,' 'Over There,' 'There's a Little Lady in the White Dress,' 'K-K-K-Kat,' 'Goodbye Broadway Hello France,' 'Hinky Dinky Parle Vous,' and even older ones like 'Swat Addie,' 'Down in the Old Cherry Orchard' and 'Chinese Homecoming.'"

Did you ever see a gang of G. I's marching along a road on maneuvers singing 'There's a Star Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere'?

Special Session Of Legislature Is Being Requested

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—A special session was demanded today by Senate Minority Leader John H. Dent of Jeannette to iron out problems involving the readjustment of veterans. Gov. Edward Martin skirted direct comment on the demand.

Dent said "every neighboring state has passed laws giving the veterans consideration in educational opportunities and readjustment allowances."

Former servicemen "by increasing numbers" were complaining about job discrimination, he stated. Employment information should be at the veterans' disposal "and not left to chance," he added.

"A special session is so imperative at this time that no responsible alibi can be given by Governor Martin for not calling the legislature into session," he declared. "We cannot face our present problems in 1947, they must be attended to now."

Commenting on the statement, Governor Martin pointed out that his speech delivered at the conference of governors at Mackinac Island, Mich., in July "has been used by many states as its directive on veterans."

The speech outlined employment problems and benefits for veterans. The chief executive made no comment on the request for a special session.

Game Bird Is Dead; Stung By Fever Tick

Several days ago, Owen Fox, city forester, noticed a quail acting in a peculiar manner at aGston Park. He continued to watch the bird, and observed it would go along in a sort of half run and stop, shake its head back and forth. Then it would run again into anything that lay in its path, until at last it was exhausted.

Mr. Fox picked the bird up, and upon examination found a fever tick back of its ear. The pest had evidently worked upon the bird's blood stream, infecting it, the bird finally dying in Mr. Fox' hand.

These ticks infest other forms of game, rabbits, ground and bird life, even skunks which are reported to be not so plentiful this year.

Ask For Aid Of Communities Near Indiantown Gap

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Military authorities today sought the aid of communities near the Indiantown Gap separation center in protecting discharged veterans carrying large sums of money from gyms and "bar-girls."

Brig. Gen. Malcolm F. Landsey, commandant, made his appeal as the rings suspended most of their activities after state, police and agents of the state liquor control board swung into action to protect veterans.

"We know many discharges have been robbed or swindled," Landsey declared, "and while these men, strictly speaking, are civilians when they leave the Indiantown Gap military reservation and are out of our jurisdiction, we retain great interest in their welfare and their safe return home."

More than 3000 veterans from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Michigan are discharged daily at the center.

After reading about all those troubles in China, Indonesia and South America, Zedok Dunkopf says he has come to the conclusion that the dove of peace is really a homeless pigeon.

Missionary Couple Arrives In City After Many Delays

Will Spend Furlough Here Following
Fourteen Week Trip
From Africa

Rev. and Mrs. Enos Hess, missionaries to the Belgian Congo, have arrived in this city following a three and a half month trip from Africa to the United States.

The missionary couple left their mission station in the Congo 14 weeks ago with the intention of arriving in this country in a few days but due to the inability to receive traveling priorities they were delayed of their plane seats by priority passengers. Their longest delay was in Natal, Brazil, where they spent a number of weeks before securing room on a plane to Miami.

Rev. and Mrs. Hess' two children Ruth and Pauline have been in New Castle, remaining here when their parents left for the Congo over four years ago.

At present, Rev. and Mrs. Hess are staying with the latter's mother, Mrs. Hanna McElrath, R. D. 1, Ellwood City road.

Galileo, the astronomer, while occupying the chair of mathematics at Florence, lectured to 2,000 students at a time.

Catherine Finney - Claimed By Death

Miss Catherine Finney, a retired registered nurse well known in New Castle, died Tuesday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Martin B. Christy of 904 Allegheny street, Hollidaysburg, after an extended illness.

She was born in Harrisburg, July 16, 1878, daughter of Thomas J. and Emma R. Finney. She was graduated from the John Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, Md.

Miss Finney was a member of the Pine Street Presbyterian church, of Harrisburg.

New Wilmington Bond Sales Are Up To $32,000

Total bond sales in New Wilmington have reached one-third of its $100,000 quota at the halfway mark of the drive. Co-chairman T. L. Ashcom and Russell C. Sewall report $32,000 worth of bonds have been sold.

IN THE OPEN

A cold rain dripped steadily from the low-hung, leaden skies, chilling me to the bone as I kept a tardy appointment in the flower beds, lifting dahlia tubers which should long since have been in winter storage. Now and then Miss November sent along a little extra bonus in the form of clammy blobs of wet ground, apparently aiming for the space between the rear brim of my hat and my turned up jacket collar.

In no uncertain language the elements made it clear that Indian Summer is over, and the gardener with unfinished business had better move, and move fast. In ankle deep mire I spaded out the dahlias, snipped off the tops with pruning shears, and loaded the crop into bushel baskets. A thorough hosing cleaned up the tuber nicely and in a day or two they will be put down in peat moss for the winter.

In Cold Weather Quarters.
The little folk of the outdoors are nearly all in cold weather quarters. For some weeks now our screens have been crowded by "lady bugs", seeking a warm hideaway. When I took down one of the cellar window screens there stood revealed a cluster of more than fifty of these little red beetles, snugly packed into a small break in the frame. We usually bring in a half dozen or so and park them about on the house plants, where they are sure death to any meaty bug which might try to nibble at it.

The annual fall under invasion is also under way. No matter how carefully the country place is screened, these eight-legged creatures will find their way indoors. For a few weeks we will come across them of various types and sizes. I notice also that a few wasps have moved into the storage shed, but the first really cold days will finish them off.

On Short Hike In Rain.
Despite the continuing downpour, I set out on a short hike down the valley to see what was going on. On the way to the creek I noticed through a thick mist of rain, a few fruiting heavily. There were beets, and burdock, and a goodly patch of Jimson weed with the swollen pods crammed full of small brown seeds. The wild golden-glow and tick trefoil were also among those present.

Along the fence by the creek the purple nightshade has hung a gorgeous curtain, highlighted by numerous clusters of scarlet oval berries. As I moved into the creek-side tangles a song sparrow struck up a note from somewhere near by, and a Carolina vireo shouted loudly from the far hillside. In an eddy at the water's edge lay the body of a ring-necked pheasant, wounded by some hunter's shell, and callously left to drown in the stream.

Little Activity.
There was little activity in the thickets. The rain had driven all sensible creatures to cover while I floundered about in the dripping underbrush for no particular reason. I halted once in the shelter of a huge leaning sycamore and watched the far hillside. The only thing that moved was a freight train, which went up the valley with a racket that definitely concluded that part of the day's program.

I moved away from the creek and into a wooded stretch where the witch hazel hung out its yellow-streamer blossoms. Near by a spice bush handed me a fresh green twig to chew while I explored the edges of a bit of swamp land. After another quarter mile I came to the bank where the wahoo grows, and stood enthralled by the wild beauty of this "murring bush."

Jaw Breaking Name.
The scientists have tagged the burning bush with a jaw breaking name, but to the countryman it has always been just "wahoo", plainly a near relative of the better known bittersweet. Gardeners who do not have this little fellow in the shrubbery border have missed a real bet for fall and winter beauty. To my eye the four-angled berries are more beautiful than bittersweet, but they soon darken and wither in the house. This is a shrub which should be admired and left untouched.

I crossed the creek by way of a rickety swinging bridge and climbed to a rock ledge dominating the far hillside. Along a fence row grew a pair of small shepherds trees, hanging quite full of the oval dark blue drupes commonly known as black haws. Later in the season these fruits will be welcomed by some of the larger winter birds. A gray squirrel bested many a bird in the tree as I passed by on the homeward trail, and I discovered a new station of wild columbine which will bear waiting seed sprouts. As I neared home, and a chance to dry clothing, a hawk screamed in challenge from the ridge. Someday soon I'll take that dare and walk the wild trails again.

Propaganda Move Is Seen In Japan

Believe Japs Are Seeking To Justify
Loss Of Greater Asia Program At Home

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
U. S. Staff Correspondent

TOKYO, Nov. 15. (INS)—American observers in Tokyo believe that the Japanese, by subtle suggestion, are trying to justify the loss of their greater East Asia program by emphasizing internal armed clashes which have broken out in China and other areas after the surrender.

Those Americans charged with the responsibility of keeping a tab on trends of Japanese thought believe the Japs are conducting a very subtle propaganda campaign by stressing—this is the commonest propaganda device.

Newspapers do not carry a single line of Japanese comment on the matter but the papers are full of American news accounts and commentaries.

As one American official said: "The Japs don't write about it but they don't have to—they are very kind of opinion that they want from foreign sources."

Propaganda Efforts.

Throughout the war the Japs propaganda line stressed that the greater East Asia program was a means of binding Japan and China in friendship and a means of protecting China from communism.

Propaganda efforts included colored posters and series of radio broadcasts showing that China was being pushed against the national interest when the Japs said was friendship with Nippon.

Now that Japan has been defeated and China's undeclared "civil war" is breaking, the Japs appear to have taken a smart "I told you so" attitude.

By emphasizing the battles in China and China, the Japs are hoping to gain a greater role in Asia and the Pacific than China and the United States.

American believe that, through such tactics, the Japs could win the national conscience and could prepare the people psychologically for a military comeback such as Germany made after World War I.

Some Suggestions On Investments By Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1945, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 16.—This column is no place to discuss investing for profits. Stock market profits are too risky for a reader to

BABSON
Why Buy Stocks

Interest rates on savings are now very low. The best banks pay only from one to two per cent. No interest is received on checking accounts. Most good corporate bonds yield much more than government bonds. I do not care much for preferred stocks unless they are non-callable. This means that if one has $1000 to invest he would do well to put $500 in Victory bonds (my cousin Paul T. Babson figures the "E" U. S. bonds yield 3.30 per cent) and $500 in the capital stock of some good dividend-paying company listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

As an illustration I mention the following 32 companies which have paid dividends every year for over 40 years:

- Amer. Tel. & Tel. (utility)
- Borden Co. (food prod.)
- Colg.-Palm-Pet (soap mfg.)
- Commonwealth (utility)
- Cont. Insurance (insurance)
- Diamond Match (miscel.)
- Dow Chemical (chemical)
- Eastman K. K. (miscel.)
- General Elec. (elec. equip.)
- Ins. Co. N. Amer. (insurance)
- Kroger Grocery (ret. trade)
- National Bisc. (food prod.)
- Norfolk & West. (railroad)
- Oris Elevator (mch. & equip.)
- Parke, Davis (drug prod.)
- Penn. R. R. (railroad)
- Penn. Salt (miscel.)
- Pepperell Mfg. (textile)

Pfizer (Chas.) (chemical)
Phila. Elec. (utility)
Pitts. & L. Erie (r. r.)
Pitts. Pl. Glass (glass mfg.)
Procter & Gamble (soap mfg.)
Pullman, Inc. (rail equip.)
Sherwin-Williams (paint & var.)
Stand. Oil Ind. (oil)
Stam. Oil N. J. (oil)
Texas Co. (oil)
Union Pacific (railroad)
United Fruit (food prod.)
West. Va. P. & P. (paper mfg.)
Westingh. Air Br. (rail equip.)

Importance of Diversification.
The $500 above mentioned should, however, be divided among five, or perhaps ten, good stocks. Looking back over the 40 years during which time I have invested for clients probably several billion dollars, I have been greatly impressed by the importance of diversification. This means that you should not put all your eggs in one basket.

If you have good dividend-paying stocks, well diversified and invest whenever you have the money, irrespective of market conditions, you should average up well in the long run. In such a case, however, you should forget all about booms and panics and not be bothered about quotations or what your friends say about the stock market. Buy stocks for safety and yield.

How To Diversify

The most important feature of diversification is the proper distribution of funds between investments which are fairly stable in their price action on the one hand, and those which historical experience has taught us will prove volatile in their price actions on the other hand.

Generally speaking, I advise working along the lines of reducing commitments in the railroad, coal, automobile, airplane manufacturing and household appliance industries. A careful scrutiny of the selling prices for many stocks leads me to the conclusion that prices are beginning to outrun even the most optimistic estimates of future earnings.

What Industries Look Best

In my opinion, the following industries are favorably situated and the prices of their stocks have not generally discounted prospects:

- Railway equipment
- Oil
- Labor saving machinery
- Steel
- Copper
- Electrical equipment
- Variety chains
- Chemicals
- Casualty insurance

However, it is never wise to select a group of stocks merely on industry prospects. Seemingly adverse developments may oftentimes help a given industry. For example, if the full employment bill should pass as originally drawn, the effect of such spending would be very stimulating to a number of lines, including variety and food chains. While the effects of inflation will be evident everywhere in 1946, I warn against over-optimism. During recent years, I have continually urged readers to maintain a large part of their assets in common stocks. Next year many thoughtful speculators may be attracted to the stock market, but they may find they are coming in at the end of the party. The wise investor will use periods of over-optimism and high spirit to batten down his hatches and prepare for the coming storm. Proper diversification is the first step in such a constructive program.

Cpl. Pete Velman Arrives In States

Cpl. Pete Velman, U. S. Marine Corps, arrived in California, following his service overseas, and is expected home shortly according to a telephone call received by his sister, Mrs. Anna Mackievich, 1606 Morris street.

Cpl. Velman has been in service for four years, and for the past two years was stationed in the Pacific area. He saw action on the Marshall Islands, Timor, Japan, and Iwo Jima. For gallant action on the Marshall Islands and Japan, he received special citations. He was attached to the Fourth Marine Division.

Cpl. Velman will receive his discharge upon arriving in Maryland. He is also the brother of Mrs. Andrew Zorgan, of Denver avenue, this city.

Great Walled Cities Of China Battle Centers

CHUNGKING, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Communist reinforcements were reported rushing today to the great walled cities of Kweichow and Paotow after being repulsed from the latter base in a six-hour pitched battle with Nationalist forces.

For the second time in several days, the Chinese communist troops which have been heavily shelling Paotow, reached the walls of the North China city. As many as 3,000 of the besieging communist troops poured through the gap and battled Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's forces for six hours before being thrown back.

The communists reformed and strengthened their reinforcements. They prepared ladders to be used in scaling the walls of both Paotow and Hsienan.

At the same time, other communists were reported massing to attack the city of Changchun. Russian troops were revealed in the city and have transferred communist facilities in the Manchurian city to Chinese forces.

Secretary of the Central News Agency said that the Nationalist troops had been repulsed from the city of Paotow and that the city was still in the hands of the Nationalist forces. He said that the Nationalist forces have launched an assault on communications and other targets.

Sees Franco At 'End Of Rope'

Jose Giral, Spanish Premier In Exile Says Franco About Through As Boss

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Jose Giral, premier of the Spanish government in exile, today looked upon Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain as "at the end of his political rope."

In commenting upon Franco's two exclusive interviews granted to INS Correspondent Edward Knoblauch at Madrid, Giral added that the Spanish government leader is "trying to give himself courage by insulting republican leaders in exile."

"During the last two weeks, Franco told International News Service exclusively that he would not be forced from office or change his policies, but that he would 'resign tomorrow' if he were certain the move would be in the best interests of Spain."

Monarchy Best Solution

He indicated that monarchy might be the best answer to Spain's problem, but explained that it must be the kind of monarchy Spain needed in order to solve the problem. He said that the king had been the center of the Spanish Republic and that the Republic had been the center of the Spanish Republic.

In reply to a question about the Spanish Republic, Giral said: "We can give Franco lessons in dignity and honesty" and continue.

Also, we can add that he is still using the argument of Communism, knowing full well that there is not a single Communist master in our government, and knowing that he is lying."

Documents Are Evidence Japan Planned War

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The congressional Pearl Harbor investigating committee has before it hundreds of Japanese documents, decoded before the enemy attack which made it clear that Japan's policy was all-out war.

These documents were contained in 144 bulging briefcases, one of them deciphered diplomatic messages from Tokyo to her embassies throughout the world and the other reports of Japanese spies on American ship movements in Hawaii and the West Coast.

The Tokyo foreign office, spinning a fine web of war-bound diplomats, told the Washington embassy of the Mikado as far back as July 31, 1941:

"A new situation now faces us from the north and south."

"In order to meet it, there is more reason than ever before for us to aim ourselves to the teeth for all-out war."

This message was translated on Aug. 8.

In Touch By Code

At the same time, Japanese secret agents were in touch with Tokyo in code.

From Seattle and San Francisco they reported that the British battleship Warpite was being repaired; that a battleship of the Maryland class was being reconditioned; that cruisers were putting in and out.

Some of the West Coast messages were decoded before Pearl Harbor, and some afterward.

Japanese spies in Hawaii laid out a blueprint of destruction of the battleships of the Pacific fleet in a message to Tokyo on Dec. 6, eve of the attack.

The message pointed the finger of doom on American Pacific striking power for months to come.

The decoder was not translated by the Army until Dec. 8, a day after the bomb fell was a shattering blow.

Set Trap For War

Diplomatic Tokyo, setting the trap of war with intricate, unbroken anticommunist Karim and Numa on Nov. 22 that the Imperial government had decided to wait until Nov. 29 before making a decision.

The diplomatic exhibit continued to reveal telephone conversations between Washington and Tokyo in which the late President Roosevelt was given the code names of "Miss Kimiko" and war of crisis was called a "birth." The negotiations were a "matrimonial match."

A final message was delivered by Karim and Numa to Tokyo Secretary of State Hull as the bombs were falling on Pearl Harbor. At that time, Hull denounced it as one of the most "infamous" falsehoods ever uttered "on this planet."

This final message, delivered in person, said:

"The Japanese government regrets to have to notify hereby the American government that in view of the attitude of the American government it cannot but consider that it is impossible to reach an agreement through further negotiations."

Blind Will Have BANQUET TONIGHT AT STATE CAPITAL

Combat Vessels Cannot Be Added To Transport Work

Navy Ships Are Being Demobilized
Along With Demobilization Of Men In U. S. Navy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Vice Admiral Louis Denfeld, Navy personnel chief, told a senate committee Thursday that no substantial number of combat vessels can be added to those now scheduled for troop transport duty without slowing the overall Navy demobilization program.

In an appearance before the senate naval affairs committee which is considering a full-dress demobilization investigation, Denfeld explained that the present Navy discharge schedule is based on the number of ships and bases that can be reduced and dismantled. He declared.

Demobilizing ships must keep pace with the demobilization of personnel in order that the while demobilization program may be finished on schedule by Sept. 1, 1946.

Those ships now in transportation service and those soon to join this service will be retained for transportation as long as necessary or until discharge of Navy personnel makes necessary further delay in laying-up or disposal.

While these ships will remain in service during the peak months of demobilization, it is not the Navy's intention to hold for an unreasonable length of time high-point men for the purpose of ferrying home men who have lower points.

Denfeld added that the ship types most suitable for troop transports would be the last scheduled for return to inactive status.

He emphasized that local Army and Navy commanders have no discretion in choosing between Army and Navy personnel, which are to be given transportation home. Only in isolated cases can they make such decision.

TWIN CALVES APLENTY

CARROLL, Nev.—Even the cows seem to have heard about the meat shortage. H. L. Harmer, a farmer living near here, believes his herd of cattle deserves at least an "E" award for production. Three of the cows are born to twin calves this fall. A fourth, who probably was thinking in terms of reconversion, had only one.

Juvenile Delinquency Is Now Increasing

GREENSBURG, Pa., Nov. 16.—(INS)—Major William Hoffman, of the Greensburg state police barracks, today emphasized the growing seriousness of juvenile delinquency by reporting that 243 boys and girls under 18 have been arrested by his men in three months.

Major Hoffman said these juveniles represent more than one-fourth of all persons arrested. These figures, Hoffman said, do not include juveniles arrested on criminal charges by city and county authorities.

Five of the juveniles were charged with murder. They were arrested by state police at Washington, Pa.

1000 JAPS SUE FOR U. S. CITIZENSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—More than 1000 Japanese have filed suits seeking to regain United States citizenship which they contended they had been forced to renounce during the war.

The suits, entered as the government prepared to start deportation of all residents on November 15, were in behalf of Japanese residents of the Tule Lake Center in northern California.

The Japanese filed two main petitions with the U. S. District Court here, charging they were victims of duress in the government and sedition groups.

Russian Policy Is Friendship For U.S. Eisenhower Thinks

General Declares Russia Has 'No
Slightest Thing To Gain' By War With U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said that Russia has "no slightest thing to gain" through war with the United States and that Great Britain will never go to war against us.

Eisenhower, testifying in favor of universal military training before the House Military Affairs committee, was asked point-blank if there were any nation in the world that the United States must fear.

"I don't think of any one nation that would attack the United States," Eisenhower replied. "I don't think there is one."

"How about war with Great Britain?" Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., asked. "There will never be a war with Great Britain," the general replied. "How about Russia?"

Nothing To Gain
"Russia has no slightest thing to gain by war with United States," he replied. "I believe the Russian policy is for friendship with the United States."

Eisenhower was excused from the witness stand after one hour and 45 minutes of testimony.

The committee will resume its sessions tomorrow morning to hear Admiral King, commander in chief of the United States Fleet, and Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal.

Long Sought Heir
To $28,000 Found

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 16.—(INS)—The long-sought heir to a $28,000 had mixed feelings about his small fortune today because it meant that everybody in his family of 12 is dead except himself and a twin sister.

The 43-year-old heir, Fred Souza, was being sought in eastern Oregon when he turned up in Portland to end a three-month quest.

"I gotta have time to think this over," the merchant seaman said. "What hurts is to find out that my whole family, mother, father and five brothers are dead."

Word of his small fortune reached him when his brother-in-law, Frank J. Galvin of San Francisco, asked the Oregonian to publish the story.

Three of his nine brothers were killed in the first World War and his five younger brothers were killed in the last war. His father and mother died in 1943, leaving him and Mrs. Galvin as the only heirs.

Paralyzed Car Driver
Makes Driving Gadget

HARRISMAN, Tenn.—Justice of the Peace Chester Hamby of Harrisman has given his car 90,000 miles in the past two years, despite the fact that he is paralyzed from the hips down.

Hamby, a former state highway patrolman, sustained a broken back when his motorcycle collided with an automobile in 1939. Since then, he has not had the use of either leg.

Hamby worked out his own method of driving a car without the use of feet or legs. He installed a finger control air brake with booster tank and a hand control gas throttle attached to the steering post. The gadget can be used on any car by attaching a booster to the clutch, Hamby says.

The effectiveness of the gadget is proved by the fact that Hamby passed the state automobile drivers examination.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

TO SKIP FROM '39 TO '43

OSLO, Nov. 16.—The Nobel Peace Prize will not be awarded for the years 1939 to 1943, the Nobel committee announced today.

The 1945 award which the committee announced, was given to Cordell Hull, former U. S. secretary of state, carries with it a cash award of about $57,000.

The award will be made officially December 12 and hope was expressed here that the American statesman would be able to go to Oslo to accept the prize.

Because it lacks a building of its own, a Canadian high school is holding its classes in the town jail. The students must wonder what they have to have to graduate—a cisel and back-saw?

Nylon Stockings Ceiling Prices To Be Reduced

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The Office of Price Administration on Thursday announced new ceiling prices for nylon stockings, effective November 20, sharply reducing prices of the popular hose to pre-war levels.

Under the new ceilings, first quality, full-fashioned nylons will be sold at from 95 cents to $2.05, compared with the present prices of $1.65 to $2.50 under ceiling set in 1942.

Our new prices are based on June, 1941, the last normal pre-war market for nylons. OPA Administrator Chester Bowles said in making the announcement.

Will Save Millions
"When production of nylon hosiery hits its stride next year the next ceilings will mean saving of millions of dollars to American women. The new range of prices fits almost every purse."

The most popular kind of nylons, first quality full-fashioned all-nylon, 45 gauge will sell at from $1.20 to $1.40 a pair, Bowles said. This is 45 to 65 cents a pair below present ceilings.

First quality, full-fashioned 51-gauge nylons, will be priced from $1.35 to $1.55 a pair, 40 to 60 cents below present ceilings.

In the case of seamless nylons, reductions range from 20 to 85 cents a pair, with ceilings divided according to needle count.

Marine Stabbed In 'Hoodlum War' In Honolulu Area

HONOLULU, Nov. 16.—(INS)—A marine private was stabbed below the heart last night in a new outbreak in Honolulu's "hoodlum war."

The victim who was said to be in serious condition was identified as Marine Pfc. Klein Brady, 23, of Topeka, Kan.

At the Honolulu emergency hospital where he was taken, attendants said that Brady will recover from the knife wound.

Honolulu police said the fight in which he was injured involved four United States marines and a gang of city hoodlums. Two suspects were arrested—one of them a woman.

Deaths of at least two persons have been attributed to the gang war between marines and sailors and authorities were mapping a wide program in the hope of stamping out violence.

The latest group to join other forces in attempts to end outbreaks of violence was the Hawaiian Chamber of Commerce which appointed a special committee to work with other groups.

General Governor Ingram previously issued a warning. National Guard troops were called out to meet the situation if civil and navy police fail to stamp out the current wave of armed holdups, stabbings and beatings.

Redeployments Cuts Flying Over Half

WIESEBACH—Redeployment of experienced maintenance men and other personnel has forced the U. S. Army Air Forces in Europe to slash flying activities by more than 50 percent, Lt. Gen. John K. Cannon declared.

Cannon, commander of the air forces in this theater, said the personnel shortage had prevented installation or maintenance of an adequate weather reporting system and other aids in addition to making it impossible to service planes properly.

"If the situation gets bad enough," he declared, "we'll just discontinue flying and walk."

"If a plane is not in absolutely top shape it simply does not take off."

Cpl. Charles W. Knox Is Out Of Marines

Cpl. Charles W. Knox has returned home from the Marine Corps, with his honorable discharge following three years of overseas duty.

Corporal Knox has received awards for having fought on Tarawa, Tinian, Saipan and Okinawa, including the Purple Heart for wounds received on Saipan.

Entering the Marine Corps at the age of 17, veteran Knox was never home on leave from the time of his enlistment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Knox Sr. of Grant City, Mo. 2 and the brother of Mrs. R. Brennan of this city.

ARLISLE—When firemen raced to answer an alarm near Dickinson Ave., they found a sign suspended from a building: "This wouldn't happen if we had Sunday movies."

Governor Martin Goes To Chicago

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin was enroute to Chicago today where he will preside over an executive committee meeting of the conference of governors.

Governor Martin, conference chairman, said the two-day discussions would center around methods of financing airport construction and cooperation with the federal government in road building. Government taxation, the postwar national guard, and the proposed return of the U. S. employment service to the states would be considered, he added.

Martin said the site for the next governors' conference would be determined.

Soldier Sons Home; One From Egypt

From Cairo, Egypt, Sgt. George Mariacher of the Air Transport Command, has arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mariacher of 323 North Jefferson street.

Sgt. Mariacher has been in the service for 32 months, and has been overseas 19 months. After conclusion of his furlough, he will report to Wilmington, Del. for further assignment.

Another son, Pfc. William Mariacher of the infantry corps, is here from Portland, Oregon, Vancouver Barracks, on 30-days furlough, before going for service overseas.

Ted Lewis Home From Pacific War

Former New Castle High Grid Star
Completed 24 Bombing Missions Against Japan

T-Sgt. Theodore A. "Ted" Lewis, Jr., former star fullback for New Castle High school is home on a 32-day furlough from the Pacific War theater where he served with a B-29 bomber crew, which completed 24 missions over Japan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Lewis, of 1316 Wilmington avenue. Sgt. Lewis had been stationed on Guam. Sgt. Lewis, it will be recalled, participated in a thrilling mission against Japan, when their plane was badly crippled by anti-aircraft fire, and only missed being struck by bombs from a plane above them by inches, the expert maneuvering of the pilot averting disaster.

He will report to a base in North Carolina on completion of his leave.

Librarians End Conference Here

Four-County Session Delegate Discuss Postwar Problems Of Libraries

With the morning session devoted to discussions of the present problems and needs of the libraries and the afternoon session devoted to discussions of books, the four-county library conference which met in New Castle Thursday was attended by about 40 delegates from this area.

Offering a pro and con discussion on the subject of best sellers, Miss Dorothy Vance Hall of Sharon pointed out that librarians can capitalize on the advertising done by publishers.

Best Sellers an Improvement
"On the whole, the quality of best sellers is an improvement on the type of reading which libraries feel that they must purchase for a certain type of reader," Miss Hall stated.

Continuing on the subject of best sellers, Mrs. Louis Dayton and Mrs. Alfred Hoffmaster conducted a panel discussion of popular books of the past two years. The two speakers found the field of children's literature well stocked with attractive and suitable books, and also found ample reading in the "Wide, Wide World" field, with books on China, Russia, and other world centers of interest.

"International Mindedness" was another field, in which were such books as "Summer Wells" "A Time for Decision." Many of the books in the modern fiction class, the panel seemed to feel, could be read and forgotten, while other books which were worth more thought were "Immortal Wife" and "Valley of Decision." Captain "Iron Castle" and "The Black Rose" were both recommended as adventure books.

Good-Will Books
Writing with deeper meanings is to be found in "Brave Men" by the late Ernie Pyle, and a group of "good-will" books such as "One God," "Richard Wright's 'Black Boy,'" and "Earth and High Heaven." The panel also pointed out that books on such subjects as prothesis and tropical diseases, as yet scientific, are beginning to come into the popular limelight.

Preceding these discussions, Mrs. William J. Caldwell, opened the afternoon session by singing "My Love Is But a Lasso." When the Frost Is on the Pumpkin, set to an air from Victor Herbert, and a Christopher Robin song.

Need for Librarians
Miss Evelyn Matthews, from the State Library in Harrisburg, spoke at the morning session on the serious need for trained librarians in the state. Mentioning the increase in county-wide library service, Miss Matthews said that 23 Pennsylvania counties now offer this service throughout the county.

Also speaking at the morning session, Veterans Administration Representative Worrell M. Jones told the conference that the veteran was not different from other readers and should not be treated differently. Through books he may gain relaxation, guidance, and a comprehension of the causes of his own mental turmoil, Mr. Jones asserted, adding that many men who never read before have learned to be readers while in service.

Presiding over the conference, Mrs. Sara Caldwell of Ambler, appointed a committee of three to make nominations for the election which will be held at the spring meeting. Acting secretary for the meeting was Miss Mabel Koehner of the Westminster college library, and the hostess was Miss Alice Sterling, head librarian in New Castle.

Report U. S. Troops Ordered To Fire If Provoked Again

(BULLETIN)
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The National Broadcasting company, quoting its Shanghai representative, reported today that Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer ordered American troops under his command "to fire on Chinese Communists if provoked again."

Names Infant Boy 'Atomic' Trotter

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 16.—(INS)—A six-pound four-ounce baby was registered with the Kentucky State Board of Health today with the name of "Atomic Victor Trotter."

The baby was born at St. Anthony's hospital in Louisville three weeks ago to Mrs. Mary Trotter. Nurses tried to talk the mother out of giving the child the unusual, if lively, name but Mrs. Trotter insisted.

The father is Pvt. Carl Trotter who was wounded in France and now is at Percy Jones hospital, Fort Custer, Mich.

New Constitution For Japan Is Near

Emperor Hirohito To Receive
Recommendations For New Constitution In Few Days

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
U. S. Staff Correspondent
TOKYO, Nov. 16.—Reliable sources said today that Emperor Hirohito was expected to receive Prince Pamiaro Konoye's recommendations for a new Japanese constitution within the next few days.

It was said that Konoye, who is one of Hirohito's closest advisers, will recommend that the emperor be shorn of power over the army, navy and foreign affairs departments.

Knayve also was understood to be in favor of abolishing the privy council, and all court offices except the imperial household ministry. The household ministry would be reduced to a titled steward under the plan and the powers of the ward keeper of the privy seal would be taken away.

At the present time, the emperor's power over the army, navy and foreign affairs departments is considered unimportant since Japan has been divested of these by the allied powers.

In the future, however, Japan certainly will have diplomatic relations with other countries and quite possibly may be allowed some form of army and navy.

Special Service At Third Church

Dutch East Indies Governor Reports Situation Is Worse

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Hubertus J. Van Mook, acting governor-general of the Dutch East Indies, described the situation in Java today as "deteriorating rapidly."

Van Mook told a news conference that "the only possible solution" is cooperation between the Indonesians and the Dutch.

Expressing hope that a cancelled meeting between Netherlands officials and Indonesian nationalist leaders could be held within the next few days, the Dutch official said "constant pressure" from the nationalists had prevented it.

"Any long delay would be both inconvenient and harmful as the situation in Java is deteriorating rapidly," Van Mook said. He added that the cancellation of last night's scheduled meeting was due to the fact that members of Sultan Sharif's nationalist "cabinet" are not all in Batavia.

Meantime, British troops at Soerabaya, redoubled their efforts to complete occupation of that naval base city.

There were indications that Japanese troops were aiding the nationalists resisting at Soerabaya. Indonesian resistance was described as somewhat decreased after six days of bitter fighting. The British 49th Brigade, which was engaged at Soerabaya since Oct. 29, was relieved by the 9th Indian Brigade.

PHILADELPHIA—Sailor Sat. Gilbert Soite came home after three and a half years in a Japanese prison camp with his own ideas about Nip intelligence. "They even smiled when they were called by their nicknames, such as hammer head, beetle brow or gruesome toothsome," he reported.

STELTON—Les Bowman luffed and he puffed while fishing in the Susquehanna river and finally hauled in a 25½ pound carp out he snuggled plaudits aside. It seems he caught one 27 pounds earlier in the year.

Mrs. Annie E. Benn Dies In Huey, Pa.

Mrs. Annie E. Benn, aged 77, died in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Katherine Anthony, of Huey, Pa., on Thursday. She was the widow of Lewis E. Benn, who died ten years ago last April.

Survivors are: Mrs. Ernest Plank of Huey, Pa.; Mrs. Katherine Anthony of Huey, Pa.; Mrs. Margaret Freed of West Pittsburg, Pa.; Howard of Freeport, Pa.; John of Evans City, Pa.; Clyde of West Pittsburg, Pa.; Grover C. of Beaver Falls, Pa.; 29 grand-children and 22 great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

ERIE—Three hundred carloads of government-owned four and six-inch pipe have been moving away from Erie for the past 10 months but the Surplus Property division rejected a bid of 13 cents a foot for the material.

State Republican Women's Convention Looks To Election

Convention At Harrisburg Centers Attention On Important Battles Of 1946

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women centered its attention today on the elections of 1946 which Gov. Edward Martin said would be "the most important political year in Pennsylvania since 1860."

One thousand council representatives closed their three-day 23rd annual convention at Harrisburg last night after hearing addresses by the chief executive and John A. Danaher, former U. S. Senator from Connecticut.

"The time has come in our country when we must realize that as a party we must assume certain responsibilities," Governor Martin said. "For the last several years too often we've been begging issues."

"The Republican party was organized for a great purpose," he stated. "It was to preserve the Union. The time has come when we as Republicans must rededicate ourselves to the principles of our party."

Told Of Challenge

Danaher told delegates that the "challenge before them now was to prepare for the congressional elections to insure that Republican representatives will be elected to help restore the 'rights of the Nation's courts'."

The former senator claimed that some judges of the U. S. Circuit Courts of Appeals were "crying out because of limitations."

Subsequent congresses, down through the years, have voted these powers away," Danaher said.

Mrs. Merle D. Detweiler Jr. of Pottsville was installed as president of the council at the session yesterday afternoon. She succeeded Mrs. John Y. Huber of Haverford, who held the office for three terms.

Republican National Chairman Herbert Brownell Jr. told delegates that the GOP was "stronger today than it was at Pearl Harbor Day."

He reviewed party activities which he said had been increased to provide year-around programs throughout the Nation.

Brownell claimed that opportunities for the Republican party in next year's congressional elections were "very bright."

Girl Is Attacked Near Bryn Mawr

Tell: Police She Was Beaten And Attacked For Three Hours; Now In Hospital

BRYN MAWR, Pa., Nov. 16.—(INS)—Frightened and disheveled, a 17-year-old Main Line high school student staggered into Radnor township police headquarters today and gasped a story of being beaten and criminally attacked for three hours by two Negroes.

The girl, Rose Nolan, of the Garretts Hill section of Rosemont, told police amid moments of hysteria that the assaults drove up in a car while she was on her way home and after beating her with a bar of soap, dragged her into the automobile.

Miss Nolan was taken to Bryn Mawr hospital, where doctors confirmed that she had been criminally attacked. She was suffering from contusions on the head and severe shock.

She told police that she remembered nothing after being knocked down and dragged into the car. Her next recollection, she said, was being thrown from the automobile near Broomall, shortly before she appeared at the police station.

The girl could only give a meagre description of her attackers. One wore blue overalls, she said, while the other wore a beanie hat and a blue pea jacket.

Of the original stock of his name in the United States, not more than 2 percent remains, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

1900 WIVES, WIDOWS OF VETS GET JOBS

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—More than 1900 widows of the Second World War veterans and wives of disabled veterans were placed in the Federal service during the first half of 1945, the Civil Service Agency reported.

During the same six months 760 widows of the First World War veterans and wives of disabled veterans also were placed. During 1943 and 1944 more than 6000 placements of widows and wives of disabled veterans were made.

Veteran placements, including both ex-service men and ex-service women totaled 95,000 for the six-month period, an average of about 16,000 a month.

Roger Bacon (1214-94) was an English monk and philosopher. He raised himself far above the age in which he lived, and made remarkable discoveries in several branches of science, contributing much to the then scanty knowledge of nature.

JAPAN PERMITTED TO USE BULLDOZERS

TOKYO, Nov. 16.—The bulldozer is coming to Japan—too late to help her war effort but in time, her government hopes, for reconstruction.

Allied headquarters granted permission to convert 115 old Japanese medium tanks and 50 old armored cars into bulldozers and trash haulers—specifying that guns and turrets must be stripped from the vehicles.

ACT AS LOOKOUTS ON LONELY PEAKS

CRESTLINE, Calif.—Three slim, attractive girls are replacing the wardens in the lonely, important lookout towers which look down on the thickly forested resort areas of the San Bernardino Mountains.

On Strawberry Peak, 6150 feet above sea level is Mrs. Barbara Wager, wife of ex-Forest Ranger Harry Wager, now in service.

Keller Peak tower rises 7883 feet above mountain vacation spots and portions of the Santa Ana river.

Here is Mrs. Wilma E. Murphy, fire spotter for three years.

Cajon Mountain lookout, 5340 feet high, overlooks the vital Cajon Pass area, main inlet for two railways and a transcontinental highway.

This lookout is manned by Margaret V. Johnson.

They keep the flame fires from burning out the forest.

Chinese Gunfire Endangering Yanks Brings New Order

Gen. Wedemeyer Orders Marines
To Return Fire If Lives
Are Jeopardized

SHANGHAI, Nov. 16.—(INS)—A fresh outbreak of Chinese gunfire endangering First Division Marines in North China resulted in a crack-line order today from Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer authorizing "appropriate action" by his troops "should firing that jeopardizes American lives continue."

The National Broadcasting company, quoting its Shanghai representative reported that Wedemeyer ordered American troops "to fire on Chinese Communists if provoked again."

At a press conference this afternoon, Wedemeyer stated that trains between Chingwangtao and Tientsin had been subjected to gunfire 600 yards from the village of Loan-track were destroyed by mines and the 300 yards of railroad which injured workmen.

Maj. Gen. De Witt Peck's First

Division Marines were under fire in the same general locality. Message Sent General Peck requested an air bombing mission on the village.

Wedemeyer revealed that the following message had been sent to the U. S. commanding general in North China:

"If American lives are endangered by small arms fire from villages near Loan-track as indicated in your radio, it is desired that you inform the military leader and our responsible authority in the village, writing both via carefully selected emissary and via dropped leaflets that fire from that particular village is endangering American lives and such firing must be stopped."

"After insuring that your warnings have been received and understood, should the firing that jeopardizes American lives continue, you are authorized to take appropriate action."

"Your warning and action should include necessary measures to insure the safety of innocent persons."

SCRAP DEALER SUICIDES

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Asher Shapiro, 58-year-old Pittsburgh scrap and iron dealer was found hanged today in his room in a Pittsburgh hospital, the coroner's office reported. He had been a patient at the hospital three weeks.

GRANGE NEWS

Mahoning Valley

The regular meeting of the Mahoning Valley Grange was held on Tuesday evening, November 13, and was in the form of a three-course dinner. Election of officers took place as follows: master, Roland Moore; overseer, Woodrow Cowhens; steward, Mrs. Frank Wright; assistant steward, Donald Whiting; chaplain, Harry Thomson; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Knoll; secretary, Mrs. Robert Cowler; gate keeper, Reed Miller; lady assistant steward, Bernice Smith; cere, Mrs. Scott Wallace; Pomona, Norma Rodgers; Flora, Mrs. Robert Wright.

The next meeting will be November 27, when a War Bond rally will be held, with pictures shown by C. M. England of the Penn Power company, followed by a short Thanksgiving program.

Westfield Grange

Captain Frances E. McClelland, Army Nurses Corps, will show pictures of the European Theater of Operations during the lecture hour at Westfield Grange, Monday evening, November 19. Captain McClelland did not show these pictures at her previous visit to the grange.

Liberty Grange

Members of Liberty Grange will meet in the grange hall, Tuesday evening, November 20.

An indoor picnic supper at 6:30 will be followed by the grange meeting at 8 o'clock.

There will be a short Thanksgiving program and later, election of officers.

New Bedford Grange

The New Bedford Grange degree team gave the third and fourth degrees at the grange hall recently. Refreshments were served, following the initiation, with suggestions for officers for the coming year being made.

An important meeting will be held on November 20 at which time an election of officers will take place.

The New Bedford Grange degree team will put on the third and fourth degrees at the Hubbard Grange hall the night of November 24.

Weir Answers CIO Charges

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—(INS)—

The CIO-United Steelworkers have been unfair and misleading in claiming the steel industry had been "hiding" war profits, E. T. Weir, chairman of the National Steel Corporation, today declared.

The steel executive said that "simple arithmetic and common sense" would show the steelworkers' company earnings have fallen during war years.

That was the answer the National Steel company gave 24,000 employees who, through their union, are demanding a $2 a day wage increase. A booklet showing the company's earnings was distributed to all the employees.

Weir said the company net profits increased only 9.6 per cent from the 1935-39 to the 1940-44 period, despite a 100 per cent increase in sales volume.

EDENBURG

MISSIONARY MEETING

The missionary women of the Christian church held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Coates, recently.

At noon, a delicious dinner was served with Mrs. George Nicholls acting as leader during the business session that followed.

A committee was appointed to take charge of the women's day program, which is to be held on Sunday, December 2, including Mrs. George Nicholls, Mrs. Amanda Fitts and Mrs. Joseph Park.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Jones of Erie avenue.

EDENBURG NOTES

Leonard Minetti of Pittsburgh spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Minetti, of Jackson street.

Cadet Nurse Jean Roberts of Jameson hospital spent a day, recently, at her home on East street. Mr. Newhard, of New Castle, was a visitor at the home of L. M. Holtmeier, recently.

Police Chief Is Skeptical About Story Of Attack

Chief of police, Robert D. Hanna

reported at noon today he had not finished with the inquiry into reports of a young woman that she had been seized and assaulted on the second floor of a darkened building on Public Square Thursday morning. He indicated that he does not fully believe the story she told.

to police two hours later. He added that he expects to question her this afternoon.

She claimed she was in East Washington street en route to get a sandwich in South Jefferson street when a man seized and dragged her into a hallway, up a flight of stairs, forced her to disrobe, beat and assaulted her.

The chief said he had "learned some things" that has caused him to question her story and he has assigned personal guard of the inquiry to ascertain fully, and once and all, whether or not the report she gave is true.

Man Dies From Blast Injuries

WARREN, Pa., Nov. 16.—(INS)—

Louis Campbell, 39, of Clairmont, who was seriously burned in a gas-burner explosion at Clairmont, died today in the Warren General hospital.

Herman Fox, who burned in the blast, was reported dead today.

The two men, employed by a Pottsville brick-making company, were working the Bradford-Penn. Refractory when the explosion occurred.

FORD COMPANY REJECTS DEMANDS

Many Changes In Contract With Unions Are Also Demanded;
Checkoff Branded Failure

DETROIT, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The Ford Motor company on Thursday flatly rejected the UAW-CIO demands for a general 30 percent wage increase.

In a letter to Richard T. Leonard, International Ford UAW-CIO representative, the company said production costs are at the highest peak while productivity is at its lowest mark.

The company also charged that the union shop and checkoff system in Ford plants was a failure.

A list of 31 proposed amendments to the present contract were submitted and that company requested that the changes be negotiated at the future Ford-union conference.

Must Give Guarantee

The company insisted that maintenance of the union shop and check-off would have to hinge on a union guarantee of company security.

It advised the union to come to next Tuesday's meeting prepared to give the company the same degree of security given the union.

The company agreed in 1941 to the union shop and check-off provisions to give the union benefit of membership and financial security and also to eliminate friction, dispute and downright industrial strife," the statement declared.

"Our experiences in the last four years have substantially dispelled this hope," the company asserted. It described union-company relations as "an unhappy experiment."

773 Work Stoppages

The company reported that 773 work stoppages were recorded since the signing of the contract in 1941.

"The very future of the Ford Motor company is at stake, unless some provision is made requiring the union to recognize and fulfill its responsibilities," the company added.

The union was requested to consent to a provision whereby it would undertake to reimburse the company for any damages caused by violation of the no-strike clause and other interferences with production.

Ford workers have already taken a National Labor Relations board strike vote. The walkout was favored by a vote of 11 to 1.

Yule Decoration Supply Still Short

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Christmas trees may shine a little brighter this holiday season than during the war, but it will be another year before their branches are decked with a profusion of sparkling ornaments and colorful lights.

Makers of decorative balls and tinsel said the relaxation of materials controls came too late for them to produce in any volume for this Yuletide. But there will be some silver icicles, limited amounts of lights and some decorative Christmas tree balls.

Tree light stocks were exhausted a year ago when no bulbs were made. General Electric Co.'s lamp division said today it expects to produce 20,000,000 tree lights for this season—12 percent of that firm's 1941 total.

Fluorescent tree lights will make their bow this holiday, but Sylvia Electric Corporation said the number would be small.

There will be some tree balls on the market, although the brilliant silvered and lagured balls of previous years still will be missing from the scene.

The lead icicle supply was described as somewhat better than a year ago at 25 percent of normal.

Plan Thanksgiving At New Wilmington

Annual Thanksgiving church services in New Wilmington will be held in the Methodist church Thursday from 10 to 11 a. m.

Rev. James S. Dinnar, pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance church, will be the speaker. The offering will be used for War Relief and Rehabilitation.

Peanut butter can be used in cream sauce, cream soup, scalloped vegetables and salads to stretch less plentiful fats.

HEARING TUESDAY

Tuesday, November 20 has been set as the date when the petition of Nick Lanzl of Ellwood City, to invalidate the election results for borough council in Ellwood City. The unofficial returns show John Minocci won but Lanzl claims the names of himself and Minocci were not on the ballot of one precinct and that Minocci's name was written in.

REVENUE COLLECTOR HELD
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Paul S. Hughes, of Wilkensburg, a former international revenue collector, was in jail today following his indictment by a federal grand jury on a charge of embezzlement of $1,083 in government funds. The indictment charges 43 counts.

Compensation Checks Will Be Given At U.S.E.S.

Claimants Will Call At Employment Office For Money Instead Of Waiting For Mail

Recipients of unemployment compensation will call for their checks at the local U.S. employment office beginning November 21, according to George R. Gettings, manager of the office.

Until now, the checks have been mailed from Harrisburg. The change is being made to expedite the distribution of the money. Claimants will call for the checks on their regularly assigned days.

Only 1,273 persons reported to sign for unemployment compensation this week, instead of the 1,427 scheduled to sign. This decrease of 154 is probably accounted for by the number of persons who have been placed in jobs recently.

BOY SEVERELY BURNED

Football Leaders Have Easy Games On Card Saturday

Army, Navy, Indiana, Penn State, Holy Cross Should Win

By LES CONKLIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—All the national football leaders should have fairly easy leading tomorrow, although in a flock of off-against on the card the decision easily could go either way.

Easiest to pick are Army over Penn. Navy over Wisconsin and Indiana over Pitt. And two bowl games, Alabama and Holy Cross, should have little trouble against Vanderbilt and Temple, respectively.

In the Pacific coast headliner, St. Mary's will be bearing down against U. C. L. A. to maintain its proud position as unbeaten and untied leader of that section. But the Bruins, fighting for the "honor of the conference," should hold the Gaels to two touchdowns and might score once themselves.

Likewise Oklahoma A. & M. with a clear field to the southwestern title, will be out there to put the heat on improving Texas Tech. And Minnesota should snap out of its horrible slump at the expense of hapless Iowa.

Favors Penn State
In a good inter-sectional game, Penn State is favored over Michigan State.

In the toughest games on the card, here's picking Texas A. & M. over Rice, Colgate over Syracuse, Cornell over Dartmouth, California over Oregon, Missouri over Oklahoma, Michigan over Purdue, Oregon State over Washington State on a win and a narrow, and like LSU to upset Georgia Tech.

Other picks: East—Columbia over improving Princeton, but not too great margin. Brown over Harvard, Rutgers over NYU, Yale over Coast Guard, Connecticut over Boston University, Johns Hopkins over Swarthmore, Scranton over Boston College, William & Mary over Kinnick Point.

South—Georgia over Auburn, Virginia over Maryland, Wake Forest over North Carolina, Clemson over Tulane in a close one, Mississippi over Louisiana Normal in a romp.

West—Notre Dame over Northwestern, Ohio State over Illinois, Iowa State over Drake, Kansas State over Kansas, Great Lakes Naval over Fort Warren in a close one, Marquette over Kentucky, Nebraska over South Dakota.

Southwest—Texas over Texas Christian, Tulsa over Baylor, Southern Methodist over Arkansas.

Far West—Washington over Idaho easily.

And tonight, Miami over North Carolina State.

Shenango's Floor Prospects Bright

Coach Eddie Nahas Announces 20-Game Schedule For East New Castle School

Coach Eddie Nahas, in announcing the 20-game Shenango High Wildcats basketball card today, also made the assertion that the East New Castle team will be in the thick of the championship, Section 21, rare this year, with a veteran team, one of the best and strongest that has represented East New Castle for years.

Shenango will open with Zellenople at Zellenople on November 27 and have been working out for the past two weeks ever since closing their championship football season.

Have Five Lettermen

With a wealth of material led by five veteran lettermen from last year, Shenango will be the "team to beat" this year, judging from the amount of experience they will have in such recognized stars as Charles "Lefty" Tanner, Paul Tanner, Jack "Hand-one" Badger, "Stretch" Mayberry and Once, the latter a sub last year who got in most of the games. The only man missing from the first team last year is Merle Zeigler, who is now in the army.

Four who served on the reserve team last year and again available are: Eddie McGuire, Don Zeigler, John Cochran and Harry Zurasky. Among the new men reporting this year and showing promise are: Ronald Johns, Frank Shoop, Bill Lepisto, Bob Letera, Wes Fombelle and C. McGary.

Six Warm-Up Games

Shenango is the only Section 21 team that could defeat the New Wilmington champions last year. All preliminary games will start at 7 o'clock, the varsity games at 8 o'clock. It was announced by Coach Nahas, Zellenople, Ellwood and Monaca are the only teams being played outside of the Section 21 teams, unless games are secured for the open dates, December 4, 20 or 21.

The schedule as announced today by Coach Eddie Nahas:
Nov. 27—Zellenople at Zellenople
Dec. 4—Orr
Dec. 7—Ellwood at Shenango
Dec. 11—Zellenople at Shenango
Dec. 14—Ellwood City at Ellwood City
Dec. 18—Monaca at Monaca
Dec. 20 or 21—Open
Jan. 4—East Brook at East Brook
Jan. 8—Bessemer at Shenango
Jan. 11—New Wilmington at New Wilmington
Jan. 15—Wampum at Shenango
Jan. 18—Mt. Jackson at Mt. Jackson
Jan. 22—Union at Shenango
Jan. 25—Princeton at Princeton
Feb. 1—Bessemer at Bessemer
Feb. 5—New Wilmington at Shenango
Feb. 8—Wampum at Wampum
Feb. 12—Mt. Jackson at Shenango
Feb. 15—Union at Union
Feb. 19—Princeton at Shenango.

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—We are nearing that poignant period in the year when the spurs fly back to Castano and the football savants pick All-American teams.

There was a time when a venerable gentleman yelped Walter Camp put on his glasses at the end of each football season, gazed over the assembled prospects and selected eleven stalwarts as his All-American team. That was the All-American team, and that was the only All-American team. And that was fine.

But it appears as if Mr. Camp's doings were a little too popular. Through the years we have come down to the point where all Americans seem bent on putting all Americans on their All-Americans. If that sounds confusing, you have nothing on the 12,672 accredited pickers of All-American football material.

Let Coaches Pick

To begin with, it seems that a national magazine has asked 330 college coaches to get together, compare notes and select a "true" All-American outfit for 1945. The idea behind the plan, in addition to a slight plug for circulation, seems to be that the players from small schools are just as deserving of merit as those from the larger institutions.

The outcome of this, of course, is quite liable to be the eighth wonder of the world. To our knowledge there are five completely standard college backs in the country today: They are Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis of Army, Harry Gilmer of Alabama, Bob Finmore of Oklahoma A. & M., and Herman Wedemeyer of St. Mary's.

Must Be Deserving

And that list of course, doesn't include the Tulliatros and the Dancewices and the Evans's and others of like ilk.

Now if our 330 coaches come up with a guy named Blank from West Teachers' Normal and put him on an All-American team ahead of Blanchard or Davis or Gilmer or Finmore or Wedemeyer, a lot of people are going to be very puzzled.

Chances are the boys from the big schools who earn All-American reps are more deserving, because they have to play tougher teams.

But if on the other hand, these 330 mentors decide that maybe the sports writer and the metropolitan public are right, and nominate Blanchard, Davis & Co. they will be surprising no one and representing a mountainous agglomeration of wasted effort.

All you need is a few more organizations of 330 members or more, all choosing varied All-American football teams. Perhaps, instead of awarding miniature gold footballs to the lucky recipients, the student committees will take to giving little gold lapel buttons, in which case the ranks of the All-Americans will soon dwarf those of the veterans of World War II.

Each committee can throw a separate football banquet in a separate hotel for a separate All-American team.

We will have inflation, and what is more, there will be no broken hearts because everybody will be able to get into the act.

Golf Will Keep Apace Of Times

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Ed Dudley, of Atlantic City, N. J., president of the Professional Golfers Association, said Thursday the organization is ready to keep apace of the expected postwar golf boom.

Dudley, reflected at the 29th annual meeting of the association which concluded Wednesday night, described a two-day program planned in anticipation of record-breaking demands for golf.

"The first part of our program is competitive, and the other is expansion of our veterans' rehabilitation program," Dudley said.

Steelers Hope To Trip Eagles

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 16.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Steelers were confident today that they stand a chance of upsetting the Eagles Sunday when the two grid teams clash in Philadelphia.

The Steelers pinned their hopes on Bullet Bill Dudley, whose brilliant playing last Sunday against the Chicago Cards gave the Steelers their first win in five local starts.

Reject Japanese Davis Cup Bid

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Holcomb Ward, president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, revealed today that the association opposes a proposal by former officials and members of the Japanese Lawn Tennis Association that Japan be allowed to play in the next Davis Cup series.

Australia, which held the cup, also has rejected the proposal.

Veteran Scout Leaves Yankees

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Johnny Nee, veteran baseball scout, was looking for another job Thursday following his resignation from the New York Yankees. Nee, who has been with the Yanks since 1927, discovered such stars as Bill Dickey, Ben Chapman, Tommy Henrich, Spud Chandler, Johnny Allen, Dixie Walker and Atley Donald.

Award Pleases Phil Cavaretta

"Mighty Thrilled" Says Cubs First Baseman Over Most Valuable Player Award

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—(INS)—News of his selection as the National League's most valuable player of 1945 was all Phil Cavaretta needed today to take his mind off the irksome scarcity of pheasants around Somanauk, Ill., 70 miles southwest of Chicago.

Reached at Somanauk where he was on a hunting trip, the Chicago Cubs' first baseman said of the honor voted him by the Baseball Writers Association:

"Gosh, it's hard to believe. I guess that's about the on honor any fellow in baseball would want. I never thought I'd get it—not with players like Tommy Holmes and Andy Pafko and Marty Marion in the same league."

Greatest Thrill

"I believe it's a greater thrill even than signing my first big league contract, or playing in a world series, or even, maybe, winning the batting championship this year."

Cavaretta won the honor with 279 points, far ahead of Tommy Holmes of the Braves with 175. Cavaretta is topnotch offensive and defensive star, and an inspirational leader. He announced that there would be no trouble with his 1946 contract.

"The Cubs have always treated me swell," Cavaretta said.

McMillin Worried About Pitt Game

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 16.—(INS)—Underestimated Indiana departed for Pittsburgh Thursday where they will meet the hapless Pitt Panthers Saturday.

Coach Bo McMillin expressed concern that his "pore little boys" might not be able to cope with the passing attack of the Panthers—the same team that has been faded successfully the last 16 times it rolled the football dice with western conference teams.

Indiana Favored To Defeat Pitt

Hoosiers Coached By Bo McMillin Given Four Touchdown Advantage

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Bo McMillin and his squad of undefeated Hoosiers arrived in Pittsburgh today for their grid clash tomorrow with the University of Pittsburgh.

The Indian coach made several shifts in his line and has a couple of backfield changes in mind for the impending game. The odds-makers have installed the unbeaten Western Conference team as favorite by four touchdowns.

Pitt Backfield Changed

Meanwhile Coach Clark Shaughnessy has been working over the Panther backfield to add power. A new arrangement for the Indiana game will see Quarterback Jack Smolik in the fullback berth, while Ed Zimmerman, who started at right halfback against Ohio State last week, will go to the quarterback post.

Twenty-thousand fans are expected at the game.

Montreal Leads Hockey League

(By International News Service)

The Flving Frenchmen of Montreal once again today were back in undisputed possession of first place in the National Hockey League's see-saw race. They clinched up their second victory in as many evenings by downing the New York Rangers last night 2 to 0.

While Bill Duman, Montreal goalie, turned in his first shutout of the season, Jimmy Peters and Murrin Chamberlain collaborated in racking up four two goals for Les Canadiens. Peters scored the first one on a pass from Chamberlain, and then set up the play for Chamberlain's score.

Detroit led Chicago for second place by trimming the Black Hawks 5 to 2 after both teams had scored twice in the opening period. Mus Brunstead clinched it for the Red Wings by tallying twice in the final period.

Nile Kinnick was a great football player for Iowa back in 1938. He quarterbacked the Hawkeyes to a 7-6 victory over Notre Dame and wound up making the All-American team. When the war broke out, Kinnick was called to service and he became a naval air corps officer. He was killed when his plane was lost over the Caribbean sea in 1943. Iowa is honoring Kinnick in a special way Saturday, November 17. The stadium the Hawks play in will be re-named the "Nile Kinnick Memorial" stadium on that date. Iowa meets Minnesota on the grid and the great spirit of Kinnick may carry the Hawks to victorious heights that day. Iowa stadium was built at a cost of $500,000 and dedicated in October, 1929. It has a permanent seating capacity of 42,184. The biggest crowd was 31,950, jammed in on extra seats that day in November, 1935, when Minnesota played Iowa in a homecoming contest.

With two strong additions to the squad, Ralph Ellsworth and Bobb Layne, the University of Texas Longhorns are going to be tougher than ever in the remaining games. ## William Helis 'Golden Greek' Has Big Heart

Offers To Take Care Of Family In Destitute Circumstances On Long Island

By BILL CORUM
International News Service Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—This is a piece about a man into whose eyes tears came when he read a recent story in the N. Y. papers about a mother and four baby children on Long Island, whose home is about to be broken up forever because of poverty and the illness of the mother. The man doesn't believe such things should be in a country as wonderful as ours. So this is also the story of what he is willing to do to prevent its happening.

The story is told in this form because I know that the man doesn't want any publicity in the matter. He might be annoyed with me for disclosing his identity but I believe that it does no harm in a troubled and often too unhappy world to name names in connection with kindly deeds.

Yes, the man might get mad at me. I have known him for several years but not intimately. However, he can hardly get mad at his own horse for telling the truth. And the quotes used here are coming from the man are accurate.

Horse Calls Up

So the horse Pericles called me up Monday. Pericles has never raced and never will. But he is the third highest priced yearling in the history of this country. He was purchased for $66,000 from the yearling sales ring in Lexington, Ky., in 1942. Perhaps he has diamond filling in his teeth.

"Hello," said Pericles, "is this Corum?"

"Did you read that piece in the paper about the poor mother and the four babies on Long Island, who is offering the two girls, one nine months old and one two years, for adoption because she was too sick and poor to keep the family together any longer?"

"Yes," I replied, "I read it."

Heart of Gold

"Well, my boss was right here in my stall when he read that piece and tears came into his eyes. He said to me, 'Pericles, this country is too rich and has too much food and too much money and too much everything for things like that to happen in it. When people are grown and can take care of themselves, that's different. But a sick mother of 21 with four helpless babies, we've got to do something about that.'"

"So he sat there and thought for awhile and then he said to me, 'Pericles, I want you to take care of that family. I'll give you $100 a week for a five-year period and provide a job for the man. If he was willing to work and would stick to a job.'"

Boss Rich Man

"As you know my boss is a rich man. But you may not know that he came here as an immigrant from Greece and that he got his money or his start anyhow, the hard way. He was a day laborer before he got together enough to start picking up a few small oil leases here and there in Louisiana."

Now this is a one hundred percent true story, except that the $66,000 horse didn't really phone me. He didn't have a nickel.

Nor do I suppose that many folks need to be told that the man who bought Pericles is Bill Helis, who is sometimes referred to as "the Golden Greek of New Orleans."

Young Lothario Is Behind Bars

Romantic Interlude Ends
For Young Sonny Wise-carver, 16, Until He Becomes Man

WOMAN IN CASE
FACING CHARGES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Ellsworth "Sonny" Wise-carver was behind bars today in a move by the law to curb his romantic proclivities until he reaches adulthood.

The teen-age Lothario who slogged with one married woman a year and a half ago when he was only 14 years old and with another last week was jailed as an incorrigible and in danger of leading an immoral life by order of Juvenile Judge A. A. Scott.

To make sure that the youth stayed in custody, the judge set his bail prohibitively high—$10,000.

Youth Dismayed

"You will never have to worry about him again until he is 21 years of age," he told "Sonny's" mother, Mrs. Mildred Wise-carver.

Although she admitted her inability to control her son, Mrs. Wise-carver wept when she heard that. She had hoped that the boy would be allowed to return home.

"Sonny" himself was somewhat demoralized over being sent to jail, instead of to juvenile hall and said as much to the judge.

"You are not being handled as a juvenile this time," Judge Scott told him. "Apparently you have seen your sports as a man, but this is the last time you will have a chance to get into trouble of this kind."

Woman Faces Charge

With young Wise-carver disposed of, the law prepared today to deal with Mrs. Eleanor Deveny, army man's wife and mother of two children who was his companion on the youth's latest escapade, a run-away trip to Oroville in northern California.

An order was signed by Mr. Wiseman after some prompting by Judge Scott.

"Mrs. Deveny, you are charged with kidnapping," he murmured when the complaint first was suggested. She apparently was under the impression that she would be asked to accuse Mrs. Deveny of kidnapping the child, that had been ordered by Judge Scott.

Mrs. Deveny, 34, was arrested in Los Angeles in April 1944.

Marriage Annulled

Later the charge against Mrs. Deveny, who also was the mother of two children, was reduced to contributing to the delinquency of a minor. She pleaded guilty and was placed on probation. Her Arizona marriage to her schoolboy husband was annulled.

Chief specification in the complaint against Mrs. Deveny is the allegation that she registered at a Long Beach hotel with Wise-carver.

Fights Pay Boost To Federal Workers

Senator Byrd, Virginia, Against 20
Per Cent Increase In Government Wages

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) gave notice today that he plans a showdown fight on the Senate floor against the Downey bill to boost government employees' pay 20 per cent.

Byrd asserted that the measure, approved by the Senate Civil Service committee, would mean an overall increase in civil service pay of 45 per cent since 1941 and would cost the taxpayers a billion dollars a year.

At the same time, Byrd accused Sen. Downey (D-Calif.), committee chairman of violating senatorial custom by clamping the bill on constituents about what is being done to help needy government personnel.

Byrd, fighting for a liberal reorganization bill to give the President wide powers to reorganize government agencies, said Downey used proxies to vote down his motion to call executives for questioning about their plans to get their personnel down to a peacetime basis. Byrd labeled Downey's action "unprecedented in the Senate."
